Mark Glead 	I am a chartered accountant having qualified with Price Waterhouse/ PwC with whom I spent 11 years, first in the U.K. and then in Switzerland before taking senior financial roles with a number of different companies. More recently, I have worked for Cobham plc in Wimborne as Head of Internal Audit reporting to the directors and board of the company. I am currently employed by Cognita Schools, an international group of some 70 private fee paying schools for 35,000 children up to age 18 in the U.K., Spain, South America and Asia. My role is to develop a compliance function as well as lead on multi-disciplinary integration projects of newly acquired education related businesses and schools. I live next door to The Sheiling Ringwood and I was educated at Elmfield Waldorf School	Financial and business strategies and modelling; financial controls, procedures and processes, financial reporting	Finance Committee Pay & Remuneration Committee
Janet Kenward 	I have worked in education in leadership, teaching, training and assessing roles for 34 years. My teaching career began in Adult and Further Education teaching Numeracy and Maths to students with Learning Difficulties, Adult Returners and those who found maths very difficult. I later co-ordinated the teaching of Numeracy and Maths to Adults for a London Borough and subsequently managed the Adult Education provision in a Community School. As Principal/CEO of an Independent Specialist College which provides day and residential learning programmes for students with learning disabilities for 17 years, I felt passionately about the college, wanted ensure its success into the future and at the same time look towards enjoying a reduced workload while continuing to use my skills for the benefit of others. In 2015, I worked with my previous Board of Trustees and other Senior Team members to plan and implement a succession plan to achieve this goal. I continued as CEO of the charity until March 2016 looking at diversification of the charity. I was a member of the Board of Directors of Natspec (Association of National Specialist Colleges) for 5 years during this time: I enjoyed supporting other ISCs and working with the CEO, other Board members, DfE and EFA staff to consider and implement national changes in the sector.	Specialist Further Education Colleges Education leadership EHCP process	Teaching & Learning Workgroup
